Exit Senator Bailey.

Do our eyes deceive us? Or has Senator Bailey of Texas really resigned? He has been threatening off and on to do so until it had become almost as much of a joke as Sarah Bernhardt's farewell tour of America. It looks now, however, like he has really "gone and done it" and that it has been clinched by the appointment of a successor who is a newspaper man, R. M. Johnson, of the Houston Post.

The Senator sang his "swan song" in the Senate the other day, but it was neither entertaining, instructive nor creditable. The fact is that Senator Bailey has long been out of joint with the Democratic party and it is well that he retired from the stage of action, even though he was the brainiest of the House of Lords. Suspicion as to his connection with the Standard Oil Company and jealousy of Bryan seems to have been his undoing. He thought he should have been nominated by the Presidency when Bryan was threatened to resign his seat in the Senate, then because he could not subscribe to some of Bryan's "populist views" as he termed them. He afterwards reconsidered and made speeches in the campaign though he never referred to the candidate.

Sensor Bailey is a man of parts, but he is badly balanced, ill-tempered and egotistic to a marked degree.

Rather Farical.

The suit for $100,000 damages brought by the county judge and county attorney of Anderson against Editor Jesse M. Alverson, of the Anderson County News, for alleged libel, as to their official acts, which was published in his paper, smacks very much of farce comedy. The attorney and the army of counsel as long as your arm give the matter the appearance of a huge bluff, which Mr. Alverson will doubtless call if he is fortified by facts, as he should be, when making any kind of a charge. If the gentlemen have really been libelled it would have been more impressive of their ignorance to have had Editor Alverson indicted for criminal libel. We know nothing of the case and have no opinion in the premises, but we are very sure that Mr. Alverson, who is a Richmond boy, thinks at least that he stated facts.

INDIANAPOLIS HAS THE CORRECT IDEA

OF THE SUBJECT OF PREVENTING RAILROAD ACCIDENTS THROUGH CARELESSNESS OF THE EMPLOYEES. Sixteen officials, directors and trainmen are under indictment in that city for manslaughter, the accusation coming through a wreck on the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton road in which sixteen persons were killed. If the high officials were held responsible for the management of the roads, so many lives would not be lost each year.

XMAS IS OVER

The old year has been numbered with the past, but the New Year holds many bright prospects for us all. We have enjoyed a good business in the years that are gone, but we hope for even better in this good New Year 1913. We depend on our friends to make it go. Thanking you for your loyal support in the past and asking for a liberal share of your patronage in the New Year 1913, we are gratefully yours to serve

RICE & ARNOLD The One Price House

THE MADISONIAN, Mr. Grant E. Lilly, editor and publisher, made his appearance yesterday and is a most creditable publication. It is a well printed six column quarto and contains much news of interest to the public. In his "greeting" Editor Lilly speaks very complimentary of his competitors here and pledges his efforts to promote the good feeling now existing among them. His salutatory has the right ring and is just what might have been expected from the high-class gentleman Mr. Lilly is. We wish him success in his undertaking and tender to him anything in our office he may want. Like the omnibus, there is always room for one more in the Madisonian and its editor a liberal share of the patronage of the best people on earth.

RESOLVED, that in 1913 we talk less and think more; that we will endeavor to extract the good out of life and build with that and ignore the evil; that we will recognize that life is a series of habits, and that we will endeavor to form such habits that will aid and not retard our advancement; that we will get a better perspective of material affairs, and relegate them to the place in life they deserve, and not endeavor to serve mammon first and God second; that we will be good humored always.

A great crowd gathered in the Senate to hear Senator Joseph W. Bailey make his farewell address to his colleagues. His effort was an attack on the initiative and referendum, but he injected many other subjects into his virile address. He spoke for over four hours and took a crack at creation generally. Barring its bitterness it was a masterpiece.

A SPECIAL session of Congress will be called by the new President "not later than April 15th," when the democratic mill will begin to grind out such legislation as is thought to be for the best interests of the country. Tariff changes will probably be the most important thing to come before the extraordinary session.

CARL BARKER, of New Haven, Conn., was a patriotic sort of a son-of-a-gun. Because his wife said the hated America wanted to go back to Italy, he shot her to death and then killed himself. His dying words were: "Love the country you live in."

THE plant of the Frankfort State Journal office was gutted by fire which started in the bindery on the third floor. The loss is between $35,000 and $45,000 and is partially covered by insurance. Our sympathies are extended to the owners in their time of trouble.

THE Breathitt News and the Jackson Times have consolidated and the News will be no more. Rhyland C. Musick will continue as editor of the Times, which he is making a mighty good paper of.

ALASKA'S commerce between the United States and foreign countries for the last year aggregated $63,000,000. Quite a nice little sum for that "useless foreign strip of country" that your Uncle Sam paid $7,200,000 for.

UNCLE SAM'S nine hundred banderets the Federal prison in Atlanta made 'way with ninety-eight large, fat turkeys for Christmas dinner. Many of them doubt fared better than they would had they been at home.

THE meanness man yet discovered lives in Richmond, Va. He made his wife pay his poll tax and then voted against woman suffrage.

PRESIDENT-ELECT WILSON will prove an efficient cabinet maker, even if he has had little or no experience with the hammer and saw.

COUNTERTY $20 bills are said to be in circulation. Pass a few around. Imitation of money is better than none.

Miss Anna and Max Warren, of Stanford, were in this city Thursday on their way to Lexington. They paid the Climax office an appreciated call.

Mr. J. C. Taylor and son, Webster Taylor, returned from Cincinnati Sunday, where they spent the holidays with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Webster.

Miss Mary Lynn Fox, of Lancaster, will come up on the 26th and enter Eastern Normal. She made her home at Mrs. Joe Chenault's, on the Summit.

Mr. Wolfe Campbell, of Tallage, Ky., and friend, Mr. Edwards, of Winchester, have been the guests of the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Campbell.

Mr. Daly Stanford, who is a nephew of Mr. Jake Shearer and a law student in Lexington, visited Messrs. Harry and Arnold Hanger during the Christmas holidays.

County Superintendent John Noland has been named by Gov. McCreary as a delegate to the 1913 International Congress of School or Hygiene, which will meet in Buffalo, N. Y., Aug. 25.

Mrs. Neale Bennett is at home from the Good Samaritan Hospital in Lexington, where she spent two weeks. Her many friends welcome her home and are gratified to know that her health is much improved.

Miss Lizzie J. Wherritt, who lived here many years, but who now resides in New Orleans, has our thanks for a very nice letter, in which she enclosed her subscription for another year to the Climax.

Mr. Herald Pieratt entertained his friends with a leap year luncheon at his home in the country on the last Sunday in the year. An elegant four-course dinner was served, covers being laid for twenty.

Mr. J. W. Walker, of the Burton Construction Co., of Irvine, with a contract for building a section of railroad in Eastern Kentucky, was in Richmond last week and paid the Climax a call. Incidentally asking us to add his name to our subscription list.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Felt and children, of Richmond, have returned home after a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cobb, Miss Lucile Walton, of Stanford, and Mrs. J. A. Campbell.

E. C. Walton, of the Climax office, has, with his daughter, Miss Lucy Lee Walton, and son, Claiborne E. Walton, now in Mr. Jett's Military Institute, taken a flat in Mr. Jett's home in Burnamwood and will go to house-keeping this week.

Mr. C. H. Piggo was summoned to Lexington Sunday to the bedside of his uncle, Mr. W. W. Piggo, of this city, who is in Lexington visiting his niece, Mrs. Wilkerson. A telephone message today announces that Mr. Piggo is in a serious condition, but his physician gives hope of recovery.

Mr. Tim O'Neal, while in Cincinnati to see his son, David O'Neal, Sunday, met with a painful accident. He was slipping from a street car when his foot slipped and he was hurled to the ground with much force. His back was severely wrenched. Mr. O'Neal found his son, who is in a hospital there for treatment, doing nicely.

Among the out-of-town guests for the Barnum-Wilson wedding last Thursday were: Miss Mary Ames Wilson and Elizabeth Mallory, of Shelbyville; Miss Norton, of Cleveland; Messrs. Archibald Young, of Louisville; Francis Hardy and Edward Abbott, of Chicago; and Henry Coons, of Louisville.

Miss Katie May Dickerson and brother, of Richmond, visited Miss Minnie Gulliver for a few days. Northern Superior, of Richmond, spent a portion of the holiday season with Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Soper. Mrs. Emma P. Bush, of Richmond, has been visiting her daughter, Mrs. O. P. Bush—Lancaster Record.

Mr. B. B. Million and family have moved from their home near Millersburg to their handsome new home on West Main. This good family will prove themselves valuable acquaintances to Richmond, socially and otherwise.

Mr. C. O. Hodges, of Hodges & Nimms, with offices at Heidelberg, who have charge of constructing a railroad in Eastern Kentucky, paid the Climax a call last week. Mr. Hodges was on his way to Heidelberg, having returned from Birmingham, Ala., where he spent several days during the holidays. Mr. Hodges' home is in Birmingham.

The Lexington Herald contains a very complimentary mention of Mr. David Chenault Estill, well known in this county and who has an increasing reputation as a position with the General Electric Co. of Schenectady, N. Y. He was at Lexington recently for the purpose of fitting out the dairy farms with ozone devices for the prevention of germ diseases.

Mr. P. M. Pope spent last week at St. Jackson Sanitarium and has returned much improved in health. His rheumatism has entirely disappeared. The proprietor of this popular resort is Mr. Chas. Cliff, a native of this county. His wife is also a native of this county. She was Miss Mary Pope, daughter of Mr. Pope, who was a member of the Christian church since her childhood. Besides Mr. Lane, she leaves three other children, Mesdames J. W. Jones and Thomas Fasset, of Mr. Sterling, and Mary Metcalf, of Owingsville. Her death was due to a complication of troubles, together with old age.

City Council Doings. The meeting of the city council on Thursday night was a rather tame affair, very little work of importance coming before that august body. Permit was granted the electric light company to run an electric wire through the streets of the city for the purpose of equipping an electric valve to be used in the case of fire. A license of $200 was put on cinder, "hot shots" and soft drinks containing any per cent. of alcohol. A number of bills were ordered paid and considerable routine business was transacted.

Bernhardt's Production. Manager Baxter, of the Opera House, goes to announce for next Tuesday, Jan. 14th, the Madame Bernhardt production—Sardou's Tabasco—acted by the famous Bernhardt players. Remember the date.

The Alhambra Changes Hands. The Alhambra theatre sold at a price not made public to the Colonial Amusement Co. (Inc.) of Lexington, Ky. The place was closed when the deal was consummated and will be opened as soon as contracts are let and various improvements are made. The work of remodeling will begin at once and when finished the Alhambra will be the new Alhambra, with more seats and all modern equipment. Improvements will include a modern front which will be made of plate glass mirrors and white marble, with a beautiful marquis built over the street. The building will be made longer and a mirror screen installed. The order is placed for electrically operated ventilating equipment and a new and up-to-date furnace. The cost of the improvements will be between $4,000 and $5,000, and the gentlemen who get the Alhambra secured a good lease on the property and our town will be sure of a first-class picture theatre for a good many years.

Mr. O'Brien wishes to assure his former patrons of his appreciation of their patronage and say that the good will of all connected with the Alhambra to that was, is extended the Alhambra to be, the one that will be greater and better than Richmond could have even wished for.

NORMAL NOTES. On New Year's afternoon Sullivan Hall was the scene of a pleasant reception given in honor of Prof. and Mrs. Keith, the faculty bride and groom whose wedding took place in Colorado, Texas, during the holidays. Dr. and Mrs. O'Brien, Mrs. Rook and Prof. and Mrs. Keith were in the receiving line and gave a cordial welcome to the guests whose number included the faculty, their friends and families and all the students. Light refreshments of tea, chocolate and wafers were served under the direction of Mrs. Haverley of the department of Domestic Science.

It was the privilege of Eastern to hear on Friday evening a most interesting lecture on the Montessori system of education, by Miss Ward, Superintendent of the Kindergarten Work in the Iowa State Normal at Cedar Rapids. Miss Ward has been associated with Dr. Montessori in her work in the City of Rome and was able to give a clear and full account of her methods as practiced in the schools of that city.

The Euclid Male Quartet assisted by Mr. O. W. Bearer, a reader of exceptional merit, will give the 2nd number of the regular lecture course in the chapel Saturday evening, Jan. 18th, at 8 P. M. This group of young men has been five years on the concert platform, and their "team" work, the result of long experience together, is unusual. Their repertoire is extensive and varied, ranging from folk songs and plantation melodies to classical selections, both secular and varied. The company carries a very large set of organ chimes upon which they play with unusual skill, a most interesting feature of the entertainment. Tickets on sale at Middleton's and Parry's. Single admission, five cents.

Golden Carey, aged ten, of Boyle county, had an arm blown off by the explosion of a dynamite cap with which he was playing.

The C. S. Cotton farm of 103 acres, five miles from Paint Lick, was bought by Floyd Curtis at $95.

Unable to reach a verdict after deliberation covering three days, the jury in the case of Fletcher Deaton, charged with conspiracy to cause the death of Edward Callahan, was discharged at Winchester.

Seven persons were killed and one injured when a C. & O. freight train crashed through the Organists bridge near Huntington, W. Va., into the river, carrying the structure with it. F. V. Webber, engineer of Russell, this State, was among those killed.

Church Notes

It occasioned sincere regret on all sides when it became known that on last Sunday morning Rev. O. P. Bush tendered to his congregation his resignation as pastor of the local Baptist Church, to become effective on March 1st, at which time Bro. Bush will remove to Columbia, Adair county, to take charge of the church at that place.—Lancaster Record.

Of the synods of the Northern Presbyterian church, the following report one-fourth and more of their churches without pastors: Michigan, 28; Tennessee, 25; Kansas, 20; Wisconsin, 20; Indiana, 27; Kentucky, 27; Montana, 27; Oklahoma, 28; Oregon, 28; Nebraska, 20; Idaho, 23; Mississippi, 23; North Dakota, 23; Missouri, 20; Alabama, 43. There are a total of 1,928 vacant churches, and more than 10 per cent. of these have over one hundred members.

The Union Meeting began at the First Presbyterian church Sunday night with a large attendance, notwithstanding the inclement weather. Dr. Wm. Black, of North Carolina, who is doing the preaching, is a very forceful speaker and a strong man. His sermons so far have been greatly enjoyed by both old and young, and he has already won a place in the hearts of our people. Mr. Andrew Burr, also of North Carolina, has charge of the singing and as he is assisting him the best singers in the city, the music is a pleasing feature. The services are held at the First Presbyterian church at 10:45 a. m. and 7:15 p. m. and you are cordially invited to attend each and all of them.

Mother of Mr. L. E. Lane Dead

Mrs. M. S. Lane, mother of Mr. L. E. Lane, the Main street jeweler, died at her home in Mt. Sterling Thursday and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery there the following day. Mr. Lane had the sad privilege of attending his mother's burial. While Mrs. Lane had been ill some time, she was not thought to be in a dangerous condition, and only the Sunday before, her son visited her and left her somewhat improved, he thought. A change came for the worse, however, and the good mother was called to join the silent majority in the land that is fairer than this. She was 76 years old and was a devout member of the Christian church since her childhood. Besides Mr. Lane, she leaves three other children, Mesdames J. W. Jones and Thomas Fasset, of Mr. Sterling, and Mary Metcalf, of Owingsville. Her death was due to a complication of troubles, together with old age.

MARRIED

A notable event in Lancaster society was the wedding last Saturday morning of Miss Norma Elmore, of that city, to Mr. R. Dunlap Blanton, of this county. The bride is a lovely young woman and has visited Richmond frequently, being a niece of Mrs. Jesse Cobb. Her father, Mr. J. W. Elmore, is one Lancaster's prominent business, while her mother is a daughter of the late lamented David Chenault of this city. Mr. Blanton is a son of Mr. W. L. Blanton, of Madison, and is a young man of sterling qualities. He is a nephew of Mr. Cobb and is engaged in railroad construction work in Eastern Kentucky, being in the employ of the Mason-Hanger Co. Both bride and groom are extremely popular and their marriage unites two splendid families. The Climax joins in with others in hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

Mr. Hardin Smith and Miss Mary C. Asher were married Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock. The ceremony took place in the clerk's office and was said by Squire Dykes in his most impressive style. Both young people are well known, the groom being a son of Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, of N. Second street. His bride is the second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Asher, who reside on the Scanlon farm near town, and is an attractive young woman. The Climax joins in hearty congratulations to the happy couple.

Little Richard Holland Dead. Richard Holland, the bright two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Holland, died at their home on Orange St., Friday. The parents are greatly cast down over the taking away of the idol of their home.

Burning Flue Causes Alarm. The burning out of a flue in Mrs. E. T. Barnum's home on Lancaster Ave. yesterday afternoon caused the fire alarm to be turned in. The fire company hastened to the scene but the blaze had spent itself when the boys arrived.
